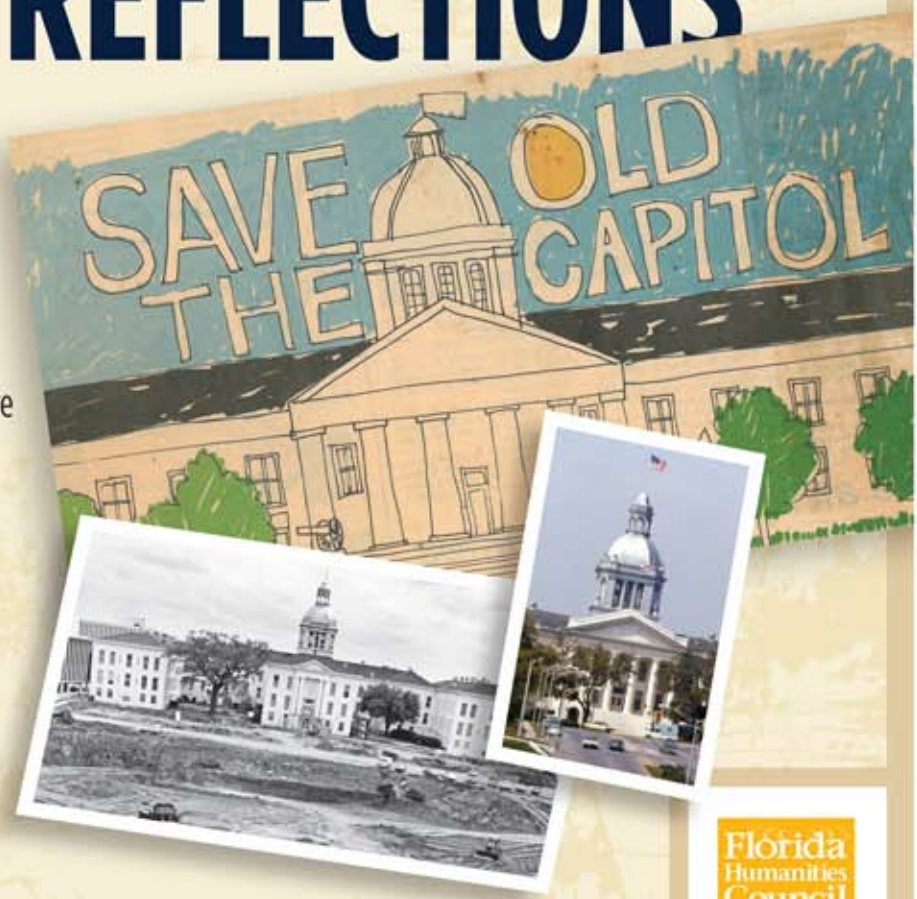
SAVE THE HISTORIC CAPITOL REFLECTIONS



Tear it down or save it?
That was the hot-button question as Florida's government moved out of the old state Capitol.

Join us for a moderated panel discussion featuring central participants in the passionate 1970s debate over the future of the Historic Capitol. Former Florida elected leaders Bruce Smathers, Donald Tucker, and Bill Gunter, joined by key organizer Christie Koontz, will share stories about their involvement in the Capitol debate. Citizens who participated in or were impacted by the movement to save the Capitol can record their memories in a special "Reflections Studio."

Complimentary hors d'oeuvres and beverages. Program is free, but seating is limited. Museum Members may reserve a seat now by calling the Museum at (850) 487-1902. The general public may reserve seats beginning September 27 at https://capitolreflections.eventbrite.com.
