

Room's Use in 1902 Capitol

- 201 Rotunda – The glass fragments in the exhibit case were found during the selective demolition of the building. From these fragments the pattern for the interior art glass sub-dome was determined.
- 212 Gentlemen's Room
- 213 Office of the Railroad Commissioner
- 214 Office of the Sergeant at Arms
- 215 Senate Chamber: 32 members (40 currently); Legislature met biennially (annually since 1968); Salary $6 per day during session with no yearly stipend (July 2007 effective rate: $31,932 yearly salary and per diem); Architectural features: egg and dart molding, dentil molding; Scamozzi capitals crowning the pilasters
- 216 South Corridor – Passage to the Senate
- 217 Office of the Secretary of the Senate
- 218-19 Offices of the Adjutant General: The Adjutant General was the officer in charge of the militia of a state or territory of the United States. (Today, the head of the National Guard serves in this capacity.)

ARCHITECTURAL FEATURES

- Cupola – square to round terminal structure rising above the main roof
- Dome – a hemispherical roof form
- Pediment – the triangular face of a roof gable, especially in the classical form
- Tympanum – the space enclosed by the three sides of a pediment
- Bas-relief – a carving, embossing, or casting moderately raised from the background plane, low relief
- Dentil – one of a series of block-like projections forming a molding
- Egg and Dart – molding familiar in classical architecture with the appearance of an egg shape alternating with a dart form
- Capital – the uppermost section of a column crowning the shaft and taking the weight off the entablature
- Portico – an entrance porch
- Scamozzi – a style of Ionic capital based on ancient Roman precedent and popularized by Italian architect Vincenzo Scamozzi (1548–1616)

Room's Use in 1902 Capitol

- 202 Ladies' Room
- 203-04 House Committee Meeting Rooms
- 205 Office of the Clerk of the House
- 206 The House of Representatives: 68 members (120 currently); Issues during the 1901 legislative session: Florida's first primary election law; Constitutional amendment to expand Supreme Court from 3 to 6 members; Wildlife protection for wild non-game birds and their nests; Infamous Flagler divorce law—introduced insanity as grounds for divorce—repealed in 1905; Expansion of the Capitol (Furnishings in the House and Senate: the railings, desks, chairs, and benches are reproductions.)
- 207 North Corridor – Passage to the House of Representatives
- 208-09 Office of the Sergeant at Arms
- 210 House Committee Meeting Room